If a course start time is not listed, the instructor is required to meet at the time closest to that offered start time. Finals week is included in the number of weeks necessary to meet accreditation standards as well as to fulfill federal financial aid guidelines. Therefore, any deviation must be with the concurrence of the department chairperson, the Dean of the college, and with the unanimous consent of the class.

**Thursday course only finals will be given on Tuesday night. If this presents an issue, please consult your instructor.
