The Week in Review

The Jackets wrapped up a grueling four-game road trip with a 78-69 loss at Dallas Baptist on Wednesday. They bounced back to defeat Lincoln at home on Saturday, 95-84.

In the loss at DBU, the Jackets had one of their worst shooting halves of the year to fall behind 40-24 by halftime. Behind the 3-point shooting of Jeff Miner and Cody Samuelson, MSUB battled back to within six late in the game but had the rally fall short. Miner hit 9-of-25 threes in the game and finished with a career-high 29 points. Samuelson hit all three of his 3-pointers in the second half and scored 13 points in the game. Eric Cunningham netted a career-high 15 points to go with seven assists.

Despite Miner's absence on Saturday due to injury, the Jackets had their best offensive night of the year in the win over Lincoln. They shot 55 percent from the field and 41 percent from behind the arc. Tom D'Amore dropped in a career-high 29 points, hitting 8-of-16 from 3-point. Samuelson had a double-double of 16 points and 12 rebounds, and Cunningham posted a double-double with 13 points and 12 assists. Carl Johnson just missed a double-double with eight points and 10 rebounds. Jonathan Wiley finished with 15 points, and freshman Troy Ruff scored a season-high 11 points while hitting three 3-pointers.

Tip Ins

Approaching the midpoint of the Heartland Conference season, six of the seven teams are still battling for the four playoff spots. St. Edward's is in the driver's seat with a 4-1 league mark. Two teams, including the Yellowjackets, are tied at 3-2, one team is 3-3, one team is 2-2, and the sixth is 2-4. Lincoln is the only team without a conference win at this point at 0-3....It's probable that at least one of the four Heartland Conference playoff teams will go into the conference tournament with an overall losing record. At this point, only St. Edward's (13-4) and St. Mary's (9-8) have winning records. Incarnate Word is close at 8-9....MSU-Billings has gotten the most bang for its buck in the conference standings. Even though the Jackets are only 3-13 overall, all three of their wins have been conference wins and they are in the two-way tie for second place in the league standings entering the week....Point guard Eric Cunningham seems to be finding his stride. After missing last Saturday's game at Panhandle State because of injury, he has scored in double figures three-straight times. He scored a career-high 15 points to go with seven assists on Wednesday at Dallas Baptist. In Saturday's win against Lincoln he notched a double-double with 13 points and a dozen assists....When the Jackets' 3-point shooters are hitting on the same night, MSUB could be tough to stop. Miner drilled a season-high nine 3-pointers at Dallas Baptist on Wednesday; D'Amore buried eight in the win against Lincoln on Saturday; Samuelson had three triples in each of those games; and Ruff came off the bench to drop in three on Saturday.
