NCAA Poll Watch

The Yellowjackets are in prime position to qualify for their first NCAA Tournament in the program's five year history. With six games remaining in the regular season, the Jackets control their own tournament destiny. They were ranked fifth in the West Region last week, and with losses by teams above them over the weekend could challenge for a higher spot this week. The next poll will be released on Thursday, April 21. The top six teams on May 9 will be invited to the NCAA Tournament that will begin on May 12. Last week's poll: 1. Humboldt State; 2. Cal State-Dominguez Hills; 3. San Francisco State; 4. Hawaii-Hilo; 5. Montana State-Billings; 6. Cal State-Chico; 7. Hawaii Pacific; 8. Cal State-Bakersfield; 9. Seattle University; 10. Central Washington.

And if You're Planning on Going to the Tourney

For Yellowjacket fans planning to attend the NCAA West Regional should the Jackets qualify, don't book your plane tickets quite yet. The obvious No. 1 seed will be Humboldt State, which is 47-2 overall and ranked third in the nation. The Lumberjacks would also earn the right to host the tourney in Arcata, CA. However, the weekend of the regional tournament is also the weekend of Humboldt's commencement ceremony, which has led to speculation that Arcata might not have the required number of hotel rooms available to host a regional tourney. No. 2 Cal State-Dominguez Hills in Carson, CA could be the next school in line to host if Humboldt cannot. The final site may not be known until May 9.

Yellowjacket Ironwomen

Entering their final week of the regular season, four Yellowjackets have played in all 40 games this season. Joey Ehnes, Sara Hanley and Christy Wankel have started all 40. Layne Pavey has played in 40 and started 38. Cami Rainey has played in 39 of 40, followed by Rachel Quarnburg and Theresa Campbell with 38 appearances apiece.

The Next Generation

With nine seniors leading the Yellowjackets' record breaking season, it's been easy to overlook the contributions of the underclassmen. Freshman Jenna Haacke has had the biggest impact of the younger players. The former Billings Senior standout has played in and started 36 games, hitting a respectable .294. Her 18 RBI and three homers are tops among the Jackets' freshmen and sophomores. She has also scored 12 runs. Sophomore Aysha Blatter is batting .233 in 35 games and has scored 13 runs. Freshman Jessica Frank has seen increased playing time late in the season and is 4-for-9 at the plate in 17 games. She has four runs and four RBI.

Yellowjacket Coaching Staff

Jeff Aumend is in his fifth season at the helm of the Yellowjacket program that he built from the ground beginning in 2000. At MSU-Billings, Aumend has again taken a program from scratch and made it competitive in just a few years. The Yellowjackets won 18 of their last 24 games, last year, to finish just one game below .500 at 27-28. The 2004 season was full of highlights as they led the Pacific West Conference in home runs and had six players named all-conference with two of those also being named all-region. A 53-92 overall record for the program is deceptive as the Jackets have increased, progressively, from 2 wins in 2001 to 9 (2002), 15 (2003) and 27, last season.

Aumend, a native of Alliance, Ohio, started the NCAA Division II women's softball program at Queens College in Charlotte, North Carolina in 1994 and served as its first and only Head Women's Softball Coach until he moved to Billings in September of 2000 to start the MSU-Billings softball program. In his seven years at Queens College, Aumend achieved a 155-132 record with a 100% graduation rate among his student-athletes. In Aumend's first season at Queens College (1993-94), the Royals posted a 26-17 record. More recently, in the 1997 season, the Royals went 32-13 and finished the season ranked fourth in the South Atlantic Region. Aumend earned his 200th career victory last season and has an eleven-year career record of 208-224. A respected hitting coach, his 1998 team at Queens finished fourth in the nation in team batting average at .372 and last year's MSU-Billings finished 23rd in the nation home runs with 32.

MSU-Billings competes in the Pacific West Conference, which includes four schools in Hawaii and one in New Mexico. MSU-Billings is the first four-year institution in Montana to offer women's softball. Aumend received a Bachelor of Science degree in Communication Arts from Defiance College (Ohio). He currently serves on the NCAA Division II "Top 25" poll committee and is the former National Chairperson for Education/Publications for the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).
