Heartland Conference

Heartland Conference Softball Players of the Week (Feb. 26 – Mar. 4)

Hitter of the Week

Lorel Palmer – Montana State – Billings

Sr. OF, Ogden , UT (Bonneville HS)

Palmer batted .414 in eight games to lead Montana State-Billings to a 5-3 record at the Central Washington Invitational. She was 12-for-29 with four runs, four RBIs, and three doubles. She posted a slugging percentage of .517 and an on base percentage of .433. The Yellowjackets advanced to the semifinals of the tournament, where they fell 2-1 to 22nd-ranked Seattle University. On Saturday Palmer tied the school record for hits in a game when she went 4-for-5 in an 11-5 win against Saint Martin 's.

Sonya Figueroa – Texas – Permian Basin

Outfield, Senior, Andrews, TX

Figueroa had a big week for the Falcon softball teams helping them spark a 6 game win streak. In addition to having at least one extra base hit in each game the senior hit back-to-back homeruns with a grand slam against Texas College. Her last double of the week knocked in the winning run in extra innings against former conference rival Bacone. Her efforts at the plate and clutch hitting have bumped her up to a .418 batting average. Over the past week she had 23 hits, 15 RBIs, 10 doubles, 2 homeruns and only on strike out with no walks.

Pitcher of the Week

Malissa Magee – St. Mary's

RHP, Junior, Houston, Texas

Magee was in top form last week, allowing just four hits over 11 shutout innings. She struck out 11 and allowed no walks as the Rattlers went 3-1 against Texas A&M-Kingsville and Trinity. In her first game of the week, she limited the Javelinas to just two hits in a complete game shutout, while striking out seven. She came on in relief in the nightcamp and allowed just two base hits over three innings. She also tossed a perfect inning against Trinity on Thursday. For the season Magee is 9-3 overall with a 0.83 ERA, nine complete games and five shuouts. She has tossed 76.1 innings, allowing just 46 hits and 10 walks, while striking out 77. Opponents are hitting just .169 against her. She is the two-time Heartland Conference Pitcher of the Year.
