Heartland Conference Softball Players of the Week (Apr. 9 – Apr. 15)

Hitter of the Week

Jenna McCartney – Montana State – Billings

Senior, IF, Hamilton, Mont. (Victor HS)

McCartney had the best hitting weekend of her career to lead MSU-Billings to a four-game sweep of Incarnate Word. She was 7-for-11 at the plate for a .636 average. She had two doubles and her first home run of the season for a 1.091 slugging percentage, and also drew two walks for a .692 on base percentage. For the weekend she drove in five runs and scored three times. On Saturday, the senior punctuated Senior Day by going a perfect 5-for-5 with a home run. For the four game series, McCartney was also perfect in 29 chances at first base.

Pitcher of the Week

Malissa Magee – St. Mary's

Junior, RHP, Houston, Texas

Had a near perfect week, going 3-0 with a 0.00 ERA and three shutouts. She allowed just six hits and six walks, while striking out 39 in 21.0 innings of work. Against Incarnate Word on Wednesday she allowed just four hits and two walks while striking out nine. She followed that up with back-to-back one-hitters against Texas-Permian Basin. In the opener she allowed one hit and two walks, while striking out 13. In the final game of the series she allowed just one hit and two walks, while striking out a school-record 17 batters. The one-hitter was her sixth of the season and the shutout was her 14th, just one off the school record. She has now won her last eight starts. For the season she is now 23-7 overall with a 0.59 ERA, 22 complete games and 14 shutouts. She has pitched 190.2 innings, allowing just 95 hits and 31 walks, while striking out 221 batters. Opposing batters are hitting just .147 against her.
