The Week in Review

The Yellowjackets remained unbeaten in conference play with a pair of three-game sweeps at University of the Incarnate Word last weekend. The victories improved MSU-Billings to 4-0 in the Heartland Conference, giving the Jackets sole possession of first place.

On Friday the Yellowjackets posted a solid .333 team attack percentage in winning 30-18, 30-22, 30-25. Ali Watson had a team-high 17 kills on 30 attempts with just two errors for a .500 attack percentage. She also had 10 digs. Jessica Bratton and Alicia Cazemier each added 11 kills. Alexis Sandru chipped in with eight kills and eight digs. Nicole Kruse led the Yellowjacket defense with 24 digs. MSUB had eight service aces in the game while only allowing one to the Cardinals. Cazemier led all players with three aces. Natalie Bills and Taylor Faught each had two. Bills also had 44 assists.

On Saturday the Yellowjackets needed just 75 minutes to dispatch the Cardinals, 30-20, 30-25, 30-20. Watson had 17 kills for the second-straight night while hitting at a .314 clip. Cazemier knocked down a dozen kills to go with four blocks. Bratton finished with 10 kills on a .391 attack percentage. Jessica Lechner added eight kills on a .429 attack percentage, and Sandru finished with seven kills on a .500 attack percentage. The Jackets had 11 service aces in the match, led by three from Faught. Watson, Sandru and Kruse each had a pair of aces. MSUB picked up 71 digs in the short match, holding UIW to a .120 team attack percentage. Kruse led all players with 20 digs, followed by Watson with 14, Faught with 13, and Bills with 11. Bills also handed out 40 assists.

This Week's Opponent

St. Edward's University

So far this season the Hilltoppers have won the matches they have needed to win in terms of competing for a spot in the Heartland Conference tournament. Although they are just 6-15 overall, the Hilltoppers are 4-1 in the conference, only a half game behind the Yellowjackets for first place in the conference standings. Their conference wins have come against St. Mary's, Incarnate Word, and Oklahoma Panhandle State (twice). Their lone conference loss was at the end of September against Dallas Baptist. A win or two in Billings this weekend would be big for the Hilltoppers since the next two teams behind them in the conference standings (St. Mary's and Dallas Baptist) are only a game back at 3-2.

St. Ed's has fared well offensively this season, but the Hilltoppers' defense ranks near the bottom of the Heartland. Offensively they rank second in the league for attack percentage, third for assists, third for kills and first for service aces. On the other side of the net the Hilltoppers are fifth in the conference for opponent hitting percentage, blocks, and digs.

The Hilltopper offense is paced by two-time HLC player of the week Lindsey Douglas. She is second in league for kills per game and fourth for attack percentage. Kristen Lozano is ranked in the top 10 in the conference for both kills and attack percentage and leads the league in service aces. Setter Stephanie Martin is third in the Heartland for assists at 10.55 per game.

Side Outs

The Yellowjackets are ranked No. 1 in the NCAA Southwest Region this week. The top eight teams in the final regional poll of the season qualify for the NCAA Tournament, and traditionally the No. 1 seed gets the right to host the regional. No MSUB volleyball team has ever been ranked at the top of the region at any point of the season before this week....The Yellowjackets bounced back from their fourth loss of the season with two resounding wins in Texas last week. By winning on Friday the Jackets avoided back-to-back losses. In the past two seasons, MSUB has only lost back-to-back matches three times. The last team to hand the Jackets consecutive losses was Incarnate Word at the end of last season. The last time MSUB lost three consecutive matches was in October of 2004....The 4-0 start in the Heartland is the Jackets' best four-game start to a conference season. Last season they were 2-2 at the same juncture....The race for the top seed in the Heartland Conference tournament is still up for grabs with four teams at 3-2 or better in the league standings. However, it appears the race to get to the conference tournament may become anticlimactic. The bottom two teams in the conference are a combined 0-9 in league play. The top four teams at the end of the regular season will meet in Billings on November 3 and 4 to decide the conference champion. The winner of that tournament will represent the Heartland in the NCAA Tournament....The upcoming five-match home stand promises to be historic. Senior outside hitter Jessica Bratton is within 39 kills of the all-time career school record. At her current pace of 3.74 kills per game, she would need 11 more games to pass Olivia Munro for the school record. Expect that to happen during this home stand....Three different Yellowjackets earned Heartland Conference player of the week honors this week. Ali Watson was the hitter of the week, Natalie Bills was the setter of the week, and Nicole Kruse was the defensive player of the week.
