ALL-HEARTLAND CONFERENCE MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Waco, Texas - The Heartland Conference is pleased to announce that twenty-three student-athletes have been selected by the conference's head men's basketball coaches as members of the 2005-2006 All-Heartland Conference Men's Basketball Team.

Heartland Conference Co-Champions and Tournament Champions St. Edward's earned two selections on the two All-Conference teams including the Conference's Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year David Lunn. Two St. Edward's players also earn honorable Mention selections.

Montana State – Billings, the League's other Co-Champion and Tournament runner-up, tallied three selections on the All-Conference First and Second Team and added an honorable mention selection.

St. Mary's guard Rod Bellard was honored with the League's other individual award as he was selected Freshman of the year. Bellard is the third Rattler in four years to win the award.

Oklahoma Panhandle State and Western New Mexico each earned four selections while Incarnate Word and Lincoln split the remaining three selections.

St. Edward's basketball coach Ryan Marks was selected by his peers as the Coach of the Year after leading his squad to a 14 ½ game improvement over last year, their first Conference Championship and the first NCAA Div. II National Tournament birth.
