ALL-HEARTLAND CONFERENCE SOFTBALL TEAM

The Heartland Conference is pleased to announce that the following student-athletes have been selected by the conference's head softball coaches as members of the 2005-2006 All-Heartland Conference Softball Team.

Thirty-one student-athletes were selected across two teams, with Incarnate Word sophomore Melissa Perez selected as Players of the Year. She was joined by teammate Amanda Sparks as Freshman of the Year. Two St. Mary's athletes earned individual honors as sophomore Malissa Magee was selected as Pitcher of the Year for the second year, and Jessica Romero split the Freshman of the Year award. The Conference's New Comer of the Year is Emily Robinson of Western New Mexico. Amy Coulter was selected by her peers as the Coach of the Year after leading her squad to a share of the Heartland Conference crown.
