Our graduates get good jobs with respected employers...

and are accepted by leading graduate and professional schools.

Internships lead to careers.

18%

of MSU-Billings' BA/BS graduates found employment through Career Services & Cooperative Education compared to only 6% nationwide, according to U.S. Department of Labor statistics.

Here are just a few success stories.

"The employer appreciated my work and offered me a position, which I accepted. I enjoy the work, I like my boss, and I have a permanent position now."

– Leticia Moore, B.S. Business Administration major, 2004 intern with Lamplighter Square

"The best thing about my internship is learning more about the business world I did not know about—and obtaining a job at American Express."

– Matt Robertson, Business Finance major, 2004 intern at American Express

"The best thing about my co-op experience is the working knowledge and the networking opportunities that have opened up."

– Amy Baird Iverson, Accounting major 2004 intern with Galusha Higgins Galusha

"The internship is a great learning experience which gives you invaluable knowledge. I got a lot of work experience and an offer to return."

– Brandon Neary, AAS Automotive Technology, 2004 intern with Jay's Automotive
