INTRODUCTION

The “MSU-Billings Poll” began in 1989. This is the twenty-second year the survey has been conducted. During this period twenty-five surveys have been completed. The Co-Directors of the Poll are Dr. Craig Wilson (Political Science), Dr. Scott Rickard (Director of the Center for Applied Economic Research) and Dr. Dan Lennon (Sociology). We would like to thank Ms. Brenda Dockey for serving as the supervisor for this research project, Ms. Jonna Jones for also assisting us and Ms. Sandra Haley for again word processing the survey results.

This report summarizes the results of a statewide random sample telephone survey of adult Montanans who were registered to vote. No questions were asked about Montana’s U. S. House of Representative race because Craig Wilson’s son is working in Dennis Rehberg’s campaign. The poll was conducted October 19-22. Students enrolled in Political Science 342, Media, Public Opinion, Polling and Sociology 318, Sociological Research Methods, completed 416 interviews for this survey. These included 88 cell phone completions. The survey was completed using random digit dial methodology, which selects both the phone numbers and members of a household to interview. For the first time a sample of cell phone numbers was included in the sample. The poll was conducted using MSU-Billings’ CATI (Computer Assisted Telephone Interviewing) software. This year the number of calling stations was expanded from 6 to 15. Multiple attempts were made to reach selected households. The survey results have a +/- 5% margin of error at a confidence level of 95% (95% of the time the results will fall within the +/- 5% margin of error). Factors such as question order and wording can affect survey results. Statistical tests were employed to determine whether statistically significant relationships ($p=.05$) existed between key variables.

I. NATIONAL ISSUES

1. PRESIDENT OBAMA'S OVERALL PERFORMANCE IN OFFICE

President Barack Obama's Overall Job Performance

This is the second year the “MSU-Billings Poll” asked respondents: “At this point in time do you approve or disapprove of President Barack Obama’s overall performance in office?” A majority of those polled (59.2%) answered “disapprove.”

In comparison, last year 53% of those questioned replied “disapprove” and 37% said “approve.”

Statistically Significant Relationships:

- A larger majority of males (68.2%) than females (51.9%) disapproved of his job performance.
- Age was not related to opinions regarding the President’s job performance.
- Educational level was not related to opinions about the President’s performance.
- While a majority (71.6%) of Democrats approved of his performance, a majority (91.2%) of Republicans and plurality (47.6%) of independents did not.
- A majority (69.8%) of those who felt in an overall sense that Obama was doing a good job approved of his handling of foreign policy. But a majority (96.4%) of those disapproving of his job performance felt he was doing a bad job in foreign affairs.
- A majority (84.4%) who approved of Obama’s overall job performance thought he was doing a “good job” handling the economy. But a majority (88.6%) disapproving of his overall performance felt he was doing a “bad job” dealing with the economy.
- A majority (60.3%) of individuals who approved of the job he is doing did not think the U.S. is in a recession. But a majority (67.2%) disapproving of the overall job the President is doing said the U.S. was in a recession.
- A majority (80.7%) of those disapproving of his job performance supported the Iraq war. But a majority (51.5%) of the respondents approving of his conduct opposed the war.

- A majority (69%) of respondents disapproving of the President’s performance in office supported the Afghanistan war. A plurality (39.1%) of those approving of the President opposed the war.
- A majority (75.8%) of those disapproving of the President’s job performance, opposed abolishing the “don’t ask, don’t tell” policy. An equal plurality of interviewees who both approved (45.2%) and disapproved (45.2%) of his job performance also opposed abolishing the policy.
- A majority (73.7%) of respondents who approved of the job the President had done supported the healthcare reform legislation enacted into law. A majority (82%) disapproving of his performance opposed the legislation.

2. PRESIDENT OBAMA’S ABILITY TO MANAGE U.S. FOREIGN RELATIONS

In reply to the question, “At this point in time, do you believe that President Obama is doing a good job, or a bad job, in managing U.S. foreign relations,” a plurality (45.4%) of those interviewed said “bad job.” Last year, in response to a similarly worded question, 42% of those polled answered both “good job” and “bad job.”

PRESIDENT OBAMA’S ABILITY TO MANAGE U.S. FOREIGN RELATIONS

Good Job	Bad Job	Undecided	Total
40%	45.4%	14.6%	100%

Statistically Significant Relationships:

- While a majority (55.9%) of individuals with a post-graduate education said the President was doing a good job in this area, a plurality of respondents with some college/degree (47.3%) and those with a high school degree or less (50%) felt he was doing a bad job in foreign policy.
- A majority (79.7%) of Democrats approved on his performance in this area, while a majority of Republicans (75.1%) and plurality (40.5%) of independents did not.

3. PRESIDENT OBAMA’S ABILITY TO MANAGE THE U.S. ECONOMY

A majority (62.7%) of those polled replied “bad job” when asked: “In an overall sense, do you believe that President Obama is doing a good job, or a bad job in managing the U.S. economy?”

Last year in answering a similar question 56% of those polled said “bad job.”

PRESIDENT OBAMA’S ABILITY TO MANAGE U.S. ECONOMY

Good Job	Bad Job	Undecided	Total
29%	62.7%	8.3%	100%

- A majority (82.3%) of individuals backing the Afghanistan War also supported the war in Iraq. In contrast, a majority (64.1%) of respondents opposed to the Afghanistan conflict opposed the Iraq war.

6. IS PRESIDENT OBAMA A MUSLIM?

In response the question, “Do you believe that President Obama is a Muslim,” a majority (63.5%) of those surveyed replied “no.”

IS PRESIDENT OBAMA A MUSLIM

Yes	No	Undecided	Total
17.2%	63.5%	19.3%	100%

Statistically Significant Relationship:

- 28.9% of those with a high school degree or less, 14.1% of individuals with some college/degree and 7.5% of respondents with a post-graduate degree said they believed the President is Muslim.

7. U. S. ECONOMY STILL IN ECONOMIC RECESSION

When asked, “Do you think the U.S. economy is still in a recession,” a majority (80.5%) of those surveyed replied “yes.”

U. S. ECONOMY STILL IN RECESSION

Yes	No	Undecided	Total
80.5%	13.8%	5.7%	100%

Statistically Significant Relationships:

- Larger majorities of respondents with a high school degree or less (84.2%), or some college/degree (83.2%) felt the U.S. was in a recession than was true for those with a post-graduate (67.6%) degree.
- Majorities of Democrats (66.2%), Republicans (90.2%) and independents (78.6%) said the U.S. was in a recession.

8. SUPPORT FOR ABOLISHING “DON’T ASK, DON’T TELL” POLICY

A plurality of the interviewees (47.4%) said “support”, when asked, “Would you support or oppose the U.S. abolishing its don’t ask don’t tell law regarding gays serving in the military.”

Last year when asked about President Obama’s pledge to end “don’t ask don’t tell,” the respondents answering the question were evenly divided (40%-40%) in both supporting and opposing the President’s intention.

SUPPORT FOR ABOLISHING “DON’T ASK, DON’T TELL” POLICY

Support	Oppose	Undecided	Total
