Answer the following questions.

1) We used 32% of our $4500 budget painting. How much money do we have left? Round to the nearest penny.

2) When bidding a job, you always bid 30% over your estimate to cover extra costs. If you estimate the job costing $1250, what would your final bid be?

3) 11.51 m X 3.840 m =
   a) What does your calculator say
      ______________________________________
   b) What is the answer using significant digits
      ______________________________________
   c) What is the answer using precision
      ______________________________________

4) In the Great Outdoors, John Candy eats “the old 96er” meaning a 96 ounce steak. How many pounds of meat did he eat? Show your dimensional analysis or no credit!

5) For international car makers their paints are in liters, so if a book calls for 6.4 liters of paint for a specific model of car, how many gallons of paint are required? Show dimensional analysis for credit.