

Corks & Cuisine

May 2009

The 17th Annual MSU Billings Foundation's Wine & Food Festival is
May 11 – 16, 2009!

Tickets are still available for many events. Please take note of the events below – you shouldn't miss them!

Executive Chef Richard Chamberlain from Chamberlain's Steak and Chop House in Dallas, Texas, will be conducting two schools on Wednesday, May 13 – a Hands-On Culinary Experience (8:30 am – 11:30 am) and Taste as Big as Texas (1:00 pm – 3:00 pm). The Hands-On Culinary Experience allows you to be in the kitchen cooking along side this award-winning chef where you will learn his techniques and secrets to fantastic food! Chef Richard will also conduct a demonstration class Taste as Big as Texas at which he will demonstrate his cooking expertise. Both schools will allow you the opportunity to feast on the food and taste accompanying wines.

John Buechsenstein, educator, winemaker and General Manager of Sauvignon Republic Cellars will conduct The World of Sauvignon Blanc seminar on Wednesday, May 13 at 7:00 pm. John is a noted educator and teaches regularly at The Culinary Institute of America at Greystone and the Extension Program at the University of California, Davis. Participants will taste Sauvignon Blanc in blind tastings – comparing domestic and Sauvignon Blancs from around the world. This is an opportunity that you should not pass up!

Stephen Sutton, Vice President, Client Relations, Sodexo, Long Beach has a passion for wine. Stephen will share his passion in the Light and Fresh Beginnings...The Perfect Brunch on Saturday, May 16 at 10:30 am. Wines and foods of the Pacific Northwest will be featured. With Stephen's guidance you will explore sparkling wines and white wines in comparison tastings. The wines will be paired with the perfect foods to make any brunch or gathering you host one to remember. This would be the perfect gift for your mom on Mother's Day!
