

Rural Healthcare and Culture in MOROCCO

A Global Community Health Service Learning Experience

When: May 7–28, 2018 (dates subject to change)

Where: 2 days in Marrakech, 2 days in Essaouira, 17 days in Zawiya Ahansal, 3 day trek and camp in the Central High Atlas Mountains

What: (Course: HADM 494) This global learning experience will take participants to Marrakech, Morocco and to villages in the Central High Atlas Mountains. Students will compare and contrast rural healthcare in Morocco with the healthcare system in Montana and participate in community based, healthcare-related service learning projects. Students will learn about the rich culture and traditions of Morocco, complete a three day trek in the Central High Atlas Mountains to villages accessible only by foot, and see first-hand how healthcare delivery is similar to and different from rural-frontier healthcare in the U.S.

How much: $4,250 * Estimated (Financial Aid and Scholarships available for full-time and part-time MSUB students)

Included: Roundtrip international airfare; baggage fees; airport transfers in Marrakech; all lodging and meals in Morocco; translators; transportation to and from Marrakech, Essaouira, and Zawiya Ahansal; licensed Moroccan mountain guides.

Not included: Passport fees, insurance, personal expenses

To enroll: Please contact Abby Cook, abby.cook1@msubillings.edu or 406-657-1761 for application materials. Submit the Morocco International Study Application and your $500 non-refundable deposit to the Office of International Studies studyabroad@msubillings.edu by Friday, December 1.
