STATE UNIVERSITY BILLINGS

Welcome to the Yellowjacket Family

Our students and their education are important to us, and so is our partnership with parents and families. We recognize the word family can mean many things. Every week we visit with parents and guardians, grandparents, extended family members, close family friends, helpful uncles, interested sisters, and we all have the same goal, to support our students and provide them with the tools they need to succeed at MSU Billings.

We want to make sure, no matter where you are, you have all the information you need to support your student. With this at heart, MSU Billings has launched the Parent and Family Program. This program is geared to keep you engaged with your student and their University.

I invite you to visit our website, www.msubillings.edu/pfp and learn more about upcoming events, campus life, housing, athletic events, academic calendar and other support services. From all of us at MSU Billings...welcome to the Yellowjacket Family.

Sincerely,

Jeff Rosenberry
Interim Associate Dean of Students

PFP Reminders

Be there! Students will often turn to the safety of family when times are tough, and it is important to know that you will always remain close to them.

Encourage your student to share the good things that they are experiencing while they are at school.

Realize that although your students may not tell you they appreciate you, they truly do.

The mid-winter blues can cause your student to be depressed, so be sure to support them.

PFP Reminders

Talk to your students to see what they are involved with on campus and attend events that they may be participating in.

Call your students occasionally about a visit and maybe a dinner out with a trip to the movies

Come to campus in the spring to visit your student and explore Billings!

PFP Reminders

Don't be afraid to let your students make a mistake. It will help their independence grow!

Give them time to find solutions to a problem in their own way while they are at college.

Let them make their own decisions.

When you share your opinion, thoughts, and values with your students; encourage them to utilize on-campus resources, advisers, or support services.

PFP Reminders

Your student may be experiencing a great deal of independence for the first time. Some may handle this new found sense of independence well and get involved in activities and make friends; whereas others may find it challenging to adjust to a new environment.

Remember, although we want our students to call home everyday so we can hear about their triumphs and tribulations, there may be situations when they need to have some time to themselves.

Ask questions and offer advice, but avoid telling them what to do.

Tell your student you trust them to make the best decision or do the right thing
