Montana has been crowned first place for having the worst drivers in the United States for the third time in the last four years. Since it is winter and the snow is here, safety is something that we should care about when driving to class, the grocery store, etc. Here are ten tips for driving on roads in wintery conditions:

1. When the weather forecast call for snow or freezing rain prepare to leave early and allow for extra time to get to your destination. Leave twenty minutes earlier than usual.
2. Plan out which route to take ahead of time. Know which streets are usually plowed or are the safest for traveling in your area. If you do not know which route to take, ask your friends, classmates, or coworkers for advice.
3. Keep a shovel and a roadside emergency kit in your vehicle at all times. Kits run anywhere from around $15 on up to $100 in stores such as Ace Hardware, Wal-Mart, Lowes, Target, etc. Common items that you should have in your kit are booster cables, flashlights, first aid supplies, jumper cables, flares, screw drivers, and batteries.
4. Do NOT slam on the brakes when there is snow or ice. Thumping hard on the pedal can make you lose control and slide around posing a danger to others.
5. Always look and steer where you want to go.
6. Never use cruise control in ice, snow, or rain.
7. Make sure your headlights are always on.
8. Keep your gas tank at least half full.
9. Do NOT try and pass a Snowplow.
10. Drive slower than usual and stay alert. Keep an eye out for what is ahead of you.
Scott Secord is a nontraditional college student studying Psychiatric Rehabilitation. Scott started at MSUB in the Fall of 2017. He has spent the last seven years working in the oil and gas industry traveling all over the United States. Scott has four amazing kids. He decided to change his career and substance abuse problem, so that he could be there for his children.

What community organizations and activities are you involved in?:
Scott: I'm very active in the recovery community and self help 12 step meetings. I have two different chair positions with Alcoholics Anonymous. I also take 12 step meetings into the jail and psych center in hopes of showing people that they don't have to continue destroying their lives with drugs and alcohol.

What is your goal once you obtain your degree?:
Scott: I would really like to be an Inpatient Drug and Alcohol Counselor. I would really like to work with young adults. I believe my colorful past with addiction will be an asset to treating others with the same problem.

How has Trio/ SSS helped you?:
Scott: Trio has been there for me when I had struggles. They have also been a huge help to boosting my self esteem and motivation. I'm sure my first semester wouldn't have went as well without the help I received from my mentor, A.J., and the rest of the helpful mentors and staff in Trio.

What are 5 random facts about you?:
1. I was born and raised in Kalispell, Montana.
2. There is a Lake Secord and Secord Township in Michigan named after my ancestors.
3. I can still shred on a snowboard for being an old man.
4. I love to cook.
5. I manage a sober living house with 16 males that are working to change their lives.
We are excited for the start of the Spring 2018 semester.
