Dr. Susan C. Barfield will talk about her Fall 2013 experiences as a U.S. Fulbright Scholar at the University of Prešov, Slovakia.

DATE: Monday, April 21, 2014

TIME: 12:15-1:00 p.m.

ROOM: College of Education (COE) 323

For four months, Dr. Barfield co-taught undergraduate and graduate courses in English education. She researched minority Roma educational issues and is co-authoring a tri-lingual children’s book based on a Roma folktale. Her professional activities included travel to Slovenia, Hungary and Turkey. She will also include an introduction to Slovak and Roma culture.