

Anatomical illustration of the arteries of the human head, 1844
Courtesy National Library of Medicine

Portrait of Mary Shelley, ca. 1851-1893
Courtesy The Bodleian Library, University of Oxford

Traveling Exhibit February 4th - March 17th
@ your MSU Billings Library

Exhibit hours

Monday - Thursday 7:30 am - 10:00 pm
Friday 7:30 am - 5:00 pm
Saturday 10:00 am - 4:00 pm
Sunday 2:00 pm - 10:00pm

On a dark and stormy night in 1816, Mary Shelley began writing a story that posed profound questions about individual and societal responsibility for other people.

