How to use the MSU Library Database

1. Go to the MSU-Billings Home Page at http://www.msubillings.edu/
2. Go to Academics (in the orange menu box) and drop down to LIBRARY
3. Click on LIBRARY
4. Under Welcome to the Library, go to QUICK LINKS
5. Under Quick Links, click on GET ARTICLES
6. Under Find an Article, click on DATABASES BY SUBJECT
7. Under Databases by Subject Area, click on your field of study or career field
8. Search through the different databases listed under your career field
9. Type your topic using key terms or combinations of words to look for sources

To access some databases from your home, you will need to create a library account at Off Campus Access http://www.msubillings.edu/library/OffCampusAccess.htm

Email me if you have any questions, or if you are in a library, ask your librarian for assistance.

Hot Tip:

Here’s an easy way to find newspaper and magazine articles:

1. Under Welcome to the Library, go to QUICK LINKS
2. Under Quick Links, click on GET ARTICLES
3. Under Find an Article, click on A to Z DATABASE
4. Scroll down to L, click on LEXIS NEXIS
5. Search through the database for your topic using key terms or combinations of words