

Yellowjacket Baseball 2007

Weekly Release #7—April 2, 2007

This Week's Schedule:

Apr. 5—vs. Texas A&M—Int'l, noon & 2:30, Cobb

Apr. 6—vs. Texas A&M—Int'l, 9:30 & noon, Cobb

Opponent Information:

Texas A&M—International

The Dustdevils are riding the high of a five-game winning streak and have won nine of their last 10 games. The Dustdevils most recently swept Lincoln University outscoring the Blue Tigers 35-15. Texas A&M—International has been proving they are true Division II competitors posting an 8-7 record against tough Heartland Conference competition.

The Dustdevils are currently 25-11-1 and have one game against Texas A&M—Kingsville before making the trip to Billings. The Yellowjackets and Devils split a pair of games in Laredo February 20th, where the Dustdevils took game one 8-5 before the Jackets stripped the second game 5-2.

The Dustdevils' Mason Dixon's .375 at the plate has turned in a team-leading 49 runs and 20 RBIs. Dixon also leads the team with four home runs. The Jackets will need to keep a close eye on Dixon when on base as he has 24 stolen bases off 27 attempts to lead the team. Rick Sanchez (.330) will likely be late in the batting lineup as he has been very effective at the plate for the Devils. Sanchez has driven in a team-leading 40 runners off 34 hits.

Daniel Lopez leads the Devils' charge on the mound with a 5.17 ERA. Lopez has allowed 37 runs off 47 hits in 47.0 innings of work. He has struck out a team-leading 33 batters posting a 4-3 record. John Gonzales (5.34) is a perfect 3-0 in 13 appearances on the mound. He has allowed 20 runs off 37 hits, and has seated 16 batters in 30.1 innings. Jeremy Wilhelm's ERA of 6.99 may not indicate his abilities as a pitcher as he has quietly moved to a 4-1 record with last week's win over the Tigers.

As a team, the Dustdevils are batting .323 and have been extremely dangerous on the base paths stealing 102 bases on 124 attempts. The Devils have recorded more than double the amount of stolen bases than that of their opponents. The team's ERA of 6.12 shows that the Devils are balanced both at the plate and the mound. The pitching staff has allowed 80 less runs than they have scored and have struck out 13 more batters than their opponents giving them a mix of weapons in the game.

Week in Review

The Yellowjackets were looking forward to opening the season at home and taking the repeat sweep over Oklahoma Panhandle State March 30 and 31, but the skies over Billings denied the team that chance, pouring buckets of snow and rain over the course of the weekend. Attempting to push the games back to Saturday and Sunday was to no avail as the Aggies, stuck on a bus in Casper, Wyoming, decided to turn around and head back to Oklahoma.

The Jackets' home opener is now scheduled for Thursday, April 5 and 6 against Heartland Conference provisional member Texas A&M—International. Originally slated to be played under the lights at Cobb, the demolition underway made the lights inoperable causing the games to be contested in daylight. Thursday's doubleheader will begin at noon, while Friday will be for the early birds with first pitch at 9:30 a.m.

In the Dugout

Most Heartland Conference teams already had a handful of games under their belt by the time the Yellowjackets opened their season. This resulted in a slow move into individual statistical rankings in the Heartland. The team finally broke into the conference rankings a few weeks ago, only to be temporarily halted by the cancelling of four games against OPSU...Still holding onto the No. 1 spot in the HLC is Ben Lewerke with a 1.45 ERA...Mike Cease is also No. 1 with five saves, while Brian Strom is No. 3 for opponent batting average (.237)...Despite not playing the four games as scheduled, Kyle Pryor still ranks No. 4 in stolen bases with 11. Pryor also ranks No. 5 with 23 walks and is No. 7 with a .463 on base percentage...The Yellowjackets' Ben Lewerke was named the Heartland Conference pitcher of the week for the week of March 19-25. The award was Lewerke's second and the team's fourth of the season.

Yellowjacket Baseball Staff

Chris Brown is entering his second season at the helm of the Yellowjacket baseball program. In his first season, the team went 15-35 overall and 13-27 in the Heartland Conference. Brown was the head coach for two seasons at Bemidji State University, a Division II institution in Bemidji, MN, but left the Beavers immediately to begin recruiting at MSU-Billings. At Bemidji, Brown was the first coach in the program's 54 year history to post back-to-back seasons of more than 10 conference wins. Before he was promoted to head coach in the summer of 2002, Brown was an assistant coach at Bemidji State for two years. As an assistant he served as the team's recruiting coordinator and pitching coach. He spent one season as an assistant coach at Jamestown College (ND), where he was a pitcher for four years.
