ATHLETES-OF-THE-WEEK: Male – David Kiplagat, Alaska Anchorage (Jr., Kapsabet, Kenya – Kaptuma Boys) ran the fastest steeplechase in the GNAC in six years and also posted a provisional national qualifying time in the 5,000 meters in meets at Long Beach and Walnut, Calif., respectively. He won the steeplechase Saturday at the Long Beach State Invitational in a time of 9:07.20, cutting 10 seconds off his previous provisional national qualifying time and missing the automatic standard by two-tenths of a second. His mark ranks second all-time in the GNAC trailing only a 8:58.62 by Jason Walker of Humboldt State in 2002. He also ran a provisional national qualifying time of 14:34.42 in the 5,000 meters Thursday in the Mount Sac Relays. That time is .33 seconds off the best time this spring in the conference. Kiplagat set the GNAC record of 14:24.92 in the 5,000 last spring. Female – Ashley Puga, Northwest Nazarene (Jr., Meridian, ID – Nampa Christian) and Kim Brady, Alaska Anchorage (So., Odessa, TX). . . Puga recorded a pair of national provisional qualifying times in leading Northwest Nazarene to the women's team title in the Spike Arlt Invitational track-and-field meet Saturday at Ellensburg. She won the 1500 meters in a PNQ of 4:36.09 and also won the 3000 in a PNQ of 10:14.52. . . Brady set a GNAC record in the triple jump and posted a provisional national qualifying mark in the long jump in the Azusa Pacific Invitational. She added 8 1/4 inches to her previous PNQ in the triple jump with a leap of 38-11 1/2, eclipsing the previous GNAC record of 38-10 1/4 set by Shelley Comstock of Western Oregon in 2002. Brady added five inches to her previous GNAC season-best mark in the long jump with a leap of 18-6. That mark ranks seventh in GNAC history.

HONORABLE MENTION: David Registe, Alaska Anchorage (So., Palmer, AK - Colony) ran two of the fastest sprint times in GNAC history and also had a 24-foot long jump in meets at Walnut and Long Beach, Calif. On Friday, he placed 10th in the 100 meters in a time of 10.69 and seventh in the 200 meters in 21.71 at the Mount Sac Relays, setting UAA school records in both events. His 100 time is the second fastest in GNAC history and is 200 time ranks third on the GNAC Top 10 chart. On Saturday, he finished second in the long jump at the Long Beach State Invitational with a leap of 24-2 1/2.

OTHER NATIONAL QUALIFIERS: Laura Carr of Alaska Anchorage and Sarah Porter, Jordan Welling and Bennett Grimes, all of Western Washington, all had national qualifying times in the 10,000 Thursday in the Mount Sac Relays. Carr's automatic qualifying time of 35:41.98 ranks second all-time in the GNAC. Porter had a provisional time of 36:45.1. Both Carr and Porter's times are school records for their respective universities. . . Welling and Grimes had PNQs of 30:35.72 and 30:46.15, which are the third and fourth fastest 10K times in GNAC history. . . WWU's Keith Lemay and Sam Washington of Saint Martin's had PNQs in the Azusa Pacific Invitational. Lemay ran a GNAC-season best time of 3:52.35 in the 1500 meters. Washington added two feet to his previous GNAC-leading mark in qualifying in the shot with a put of 52-6 1/2, the second longest in GNAC history.

IMPROVING THEIR MARKS: Five SPU athletes improved on previous national qualifying marks at various venues. . . Brittany Bekins added 127 points to her previous PNQ in finishing eighth in the California Invitational heptathlon with a score of 4,681 points. . . Karin Rohde cut nine seconds off her previous PNQ in winning the steeplechase in a time of 11:08.5 at the Spike Arlt Invitational. . . In the Mount Sac Relays, Lisa Anderberg ran a GNAC season-best mark of 2:12.52, cutting 1 1/2 seconds off her previous PNQ, while teammate Jane Larson ran a 4:28.08, shaving 1.57 seconds off her previous automatic national qualifying time. Larson's time ranks second all-time in the GNAC. . . At the Long Beach State Invitational, Lauren VerMulm finished fourth in the javelin with a throw of 148-10, adding 3 1/2 feet to her previous automatic mark.

Men's Golf

THIS WEEK: Monday-Tuesday – GNAC Championships (at Indian Canyon, Spokane).

WHAT'S LEFT: May 5-7 – NCAA Super Regionals (at Petaluma, CA). May 14-17 – NCAA Nationals (at Houston, Tex).

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK: Brandon Brown, Western Washington (Jr., Kent, WA) finished fourth in the Cal State Stanislaus Invitational at Turlock, Calif., with a 54-hole total of even par 216. Brown came into the tournament ranked just sixth in the GNAC in scoring and fifth on his own team with a 75.7 average. His 54-hole total was 11 shots lower than any of his teammates and his bogey-free round on Tuesday was one of just five below par for the day. "With the high winds he had to deal with, that was a very impressive round of golf," said Western coach Steve Card. "It's arguably one of the most impressive performances I've seen in my 15 years coaching here. It was by far his best performance as a Viking."
