The Jackets went 13-4-1 in Dan McNally's third year at the helm of the program. MSUB was second in the GNAC with a 5-2-1 record and just missed out on its first NCAA Tournament appearance. Not only did individual players break school records, the team did as well. MSUB tallied a school record 46 goals in 2007 and was just as stout defensively. MSUB allowed a school record low 13 goals in 2007 and had a 0.71 goals against average along with a school best nine shutouts.
