POLLS: CSTV/AVCA National Division II (Pre-Season) – 23. Western Washington, 24. Western Oregon.

GNAC PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK: Calli Scott, Alaska Anchorage (S, 5-8, Sr., Scottsdale, AZ – Pinnacle & Glendale CC) had a GNAC opening weekend best 162 assists (10.12 per set) to lead the Seawolves to a 3-1 record and the team title in the UAA Extended Stay Invitational at the Wells Fargo Sports Complex. Scott, who won the tournament Most Outstanding Player award for the second year in a row, also had 31 digs, nine blocks and four aces. “Calli was incredible tonight,” UAA head coach Chris Green said following the Seawolves’ 3-1 win over the Academy of the Art in the championship match. “She does so many things right, along with providing the leadership for a very young team.” With Scott leading the way, UAA finished the tournament with a .277 hitting percentage, 58 points higher than any other GNAC team in the opening week of the season.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMANCES: Devon Crotteau had 67 kills, 33 digs and eight service aces and led Montana State Billings to a 2-2 record, including its first win against Hawaii Pacific in 16 meetings. Crotteau hit .259 in MSUB’s four matches more than twice the team’s hitting percentage of .124. Freshman Marlayna Geary had an auspicious debut averaging 4.00 kills in leading Western Washington to three wins, including a 3-1 win over 20th-ranked Cal State L.A. Geary had 64 kills in 16 sets and also had 38 digs. Megan Thigpen of Alaska Fairbanks took the early kill lead in the conference averaging 4.08 in 12 sets. Thigpen had 49 kills in four matches, including three against nationally ranked teams.

ALL-TOURNAMENT: Joining Scott on the all-tournament team at Anchorage were outside hitter McKenzie Moss and middle blocker Jackie Matthisen. Moss had a team-best 61 kills and 38 digs, while Matthisen, a transfer from Western Oregon, had 50 kills and 34 blocks. . .Cammy Dranginis of Northwest Nazarene and Erin Norris of Central Washington were named to the all-tournament team in the Sonoma State Invitational. Dranginis had 56 kills and a .333 hitting percentage to lead the Crusaders to a 3-1 record. She also had 13 blocks to move into a tie for second-place on the GNAC all-time block list with 384. Emily Wofford of Saint Martin's also had 384 between 2001 and 2004. Louise Free of NNU (1999-2002) is the all-time leader with 402. . .Norris had a team-best 38 kills and also had 14 aces and six blocks as the Wildcats got off to a 3-0 start before losing to host Sonoma State. Norris ranks fifth in GNAC history with 155 career aces.

AROUND THE GNAC: Lindsay Grant averaged a double-double in Northwest Nazarene's four matches, finishing with 55 kills and 61 digs. . .Sarah Risser had 45 kills and 25 digs to lead Seattle Pacific to a 2-2 record, including a 3-0 win over #18 ranked Cal Poly Pomona. SPU's Amber Johnson had 15 blocks in 13 sets to take the early blocking lead in the conference (1.15 per set). . .Danielle Reese was credited with 43 kills as defending GNAC champion Western Oregon won just one of four matches. The Wolves had a .241 opponent hitting percentage, nearly double the percentage (.125) it posted in leading the conference last fall in that category.

ALL-TOURNAMENT: Alaska Anchorage (Aug. 28-29) - Calli Scott, UAA (MVP); McKenzie Moss, UAA; Jackie Matthisen, UAA. Sonoma State (Aug. 28-29) - Cammy Dranginis, NNU; Erin Norris, CWU.

POLLS: NSCAA National (Pre-Season) - No GNAC team is ranked.

GNAC PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK: Sam Charles, Montana State Billings (F, 6-4, Sr., Chiswell, England) scored three goals and also had two assists to lead the Yellowjackets to a pair of lopsided shutout victories. In three seasons in the GNAC, Charles has scored a GNAC-record 41 goals and 93 points. He broke the old goal record of 40 set by Seattle University's Bobby McAlister between 2002 and 2005 and also tied McAlister's GNAC record for most points. Including his freshman season in the Heartland Conference, Charles has 48 goals and 109 points.

QUOTABLE: “It is a great achievement for Sam (Charles) to be the all-time leader in goals scored in the GNAC,” MSUB coach Dan McNally said. “He has consistently performed at a high level and his goals have been extremely important to our success. There have been many great forwards in the GNAC (including McAlister, a former NCAA Division II National Player-of-the-Year) and for Sam to have the most goals is a major accomplishment.”

AROUND THE GNAC: Midfielder Jarred Weisen and forward Garion Holian each had two goals and Chris Andre had three assists as MSU Billings opened its season with two victories. The ‘Jackets outshot their opponents 34-8. . Alec Nelson and Tyler Schultz scored goals as Seattle Pacific beat San Francisco State 2-0 in its debut. . Oscar Jimenez had Western Washington’s lone goal in a 2-1 overtime loss to 17th ranked Sonoma State. . Renato Brito had a goal and assist as Northwest Nazarene lost a pair of contests.
