GNAC PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK: Emily Jepsen, Western Washington (MB, 6-1, Jr., Hardin, MT – Miles CC) and Cortney Lundberg, Alaska Anchorage (MB, 5-11, So., Kennewick, WA - Kamiakin). . Both Jepsen and Lundberg had impressive hitting percentages in leading their teams to a pair of victories. Jepsen had 30 kills and hit for a .509 percentage as the Vikings beat Western Oregon 3-1 and swept Montana State Billings to move to within one-half match of the conference lead. Jepsen also led the Vikings in their two victories with three aces and eight blocks. . Lundberg had 22 kills and hit for a .556 percentage in sweeps of Seattle Pacific and Northwest Nazarene as UAA earned a share of first-place in the conference with the Falcons. She also contributed to 12 of UAA's 17 blocks, earning five solos and seven assists. UAA has now won 15 consecutive sets during which Lundberg has hit for a .576 percentage (56-7-85) and had 20 blocks including seven solos. On the season she ranks fourth in the GNAC in hitting percentage (.337) and second in blocks (1.06).

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMANCES: Kady Try led Central Washington with 29 kills and hit for a .307 percentage as the Wildcats earned road wins at Billings and Lacey. Try also had 17 digs and five aces. CWU doubled its two opponents' hitting percentage (.213 to .104) in moving into a three-way tie for fifth place in the conference standings. . Sarah Risser had 28 kills and 22 digs as Seattle Pacific split two home matches for the Alaska schools. Risser hit for a .261 percentage in the two matches. . Megan Thigpen had 31 kills and 21 digs and hit for a .253 percentage as Alaska Fairbanks lost matches at Nampa and SPU's Brougham Pavilion.

RECORD BOOK NUMBERS: Erin Norris of Central Washington had two aces in a 3-1 win at Montana State Billings increasing her career total to 190 and establishing a GNAC career record. The old record of 188 was set by Alyssa Given of Seattle Pacific between 2004 and 2007. . MSU Billings' Devon Crotteau, who is the GNAC career leader in kills per set (4.14), had 44 kills in three matches to move into ninth place on the GNAC all-time career kill list with 1,239. She also ranks 11th in career points with 1,422. . Cammy Dranginis of Northwest Nazarene ranks seventh in career points with 1,501. Marlayna Geary had 28 kills and 23 digs and Allison Gotz had 33 digs for the Vikings. . During its 15-set win streak, Alaska Anchorage has out-hit its opponents .310 to .126. Calli Scott has orchestrated the offense, which has featured Jackie Matthisen (72 kills, .339 percentage) and Lundberg, averaging 11.20 assists per set, while Stacie Meisner has led the defense with 63 digs. . Jen Boe had 37 kills and 34 digs as MSUB beat Rocky Mountain before losing at home to Central Washington and Western Washington. . Teilissa Tua led Saint Martin's with 17 kills and five blocks as the Saints split matches, defeating Evergreen State 3-0 to end an eight-match losing streak before being swept by CWU. . Danielle Reese led Western Oregon with 12 kills in a 3-1 loss to Western Washington.

LOOKING AT THE PLAYOFF RACE: Three GNAC teams were ranked in the Top 10 in the inaugural NCAA Division II West Region poll. Seattle Pacific was ranked sixth, Alaska Anchorage was ranked seventh and Northwest Nazarene was ranked ninth. UAA and SPU are tied for first in the race for the GNAC title and the conference's automatic berth, one half match ahead of Western Washington. UAA plays five of its final seven matches at home, including home matches with both WWU and SPU. The Vikings finish the regular-season with four of their six remaining matches on the road, while the Falcons play five of their remaining seven away from Brougham Pavilion.

ACADEMY OF ART MATCHES NOW REGION COUNTERS: Academy of Art has received a waiver from the NCAA and matches with A of A now count as regional contests. Earlier this fall, Alaska Anchorage split two matches with A of A, while Central Washington beat the PacWest school. Seattle Pacific and Western Washington both lost to the Urban Knights. GNAC teams are 19-12 against PacWest teams (including Academy of the Art) and 14-18 against CCAA teams for a 33-30 overall record against other West Region teams.

GNAC (19) vs. PACWEST (12): Western Washington 3-1, Central Washington 3-1, Alaska Anchorage 4-2, Seattle Pacific 3-2, Alaska Fairbanks 3-2, MSU Billings 2-2, Western Oregon 1-1, Saint Martin's 0-1.

GNAC PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK: Kelly Irving, Western Washington (M, 5-6, Sr., Gig Harbor, WA) had the game-winning goal in a 2-0 victory at Grand Canyon, then earned assists on the GWGs in 2-0 and 1-0 wins at Central Washington and Western Oregon as the Vikings won three road contests. The assists were Irving's league-leading sixth and seventh of the season and the 24th and 25th of her career, moving her into a tie for seventh place on the GNAC all-time career assist list.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMANCES: Seattle Pacific forward Jocelyn Charette had eight points (three goals, two assists) and scored the game-winning goals in wins over Saint Martin's and Northwest Nazarene. Charette ranks 14th in GNAC history in points (70), 13th in goals (24) and 11th in assists (22). Eleven of her goals have been game-winners. Western Washington goalkeeper Kylie Broadbent had nine saves in posting three shutouts, her fifth, sixth and seventh of the season. Broadbent, who has a 0.81 goals against average, now has 15 shutouts to rank ninth on the GNAC career list.

THE RECORD BOOK: Seattle Pacific goalkeeper Maddie Dickinson had seven saves in 2-0 and 7-0 road wins at Saint Martin's and Northwest Nazarene, extending her streak without allowing a goal to a GNAC-record 873 minutes and seven seconds. That broke the old record of 835 minutes by SPU's Jennifer Hull in 2003. Dickinson has a career 0.28 goals against average. The GNAC career record is 0.46 by SPU's Jesslyn Rahm Kellerman, who also ranks third in GNAC history in career shutouts with 22. Dickinson needs to play an additional 261 minutes before she qualifies for the career GAA record.

AROUND THE GNAC: Molly Shannon scored the game-winning goals in Western Washington's wins at Central Washington and Western Oregon. . . Joanne Packer scored the game-winning goal in Saint Martin's 2-1 win at Central Washington. . .Britney Rigtrup had 10 saves in Western Oregon's 1-0 loss to Western Washington. "The score could have been 5-0 if not for outstanding goal keeping by Rigtrup," WOU coach Rod Fretz said. . .Kari Foreman scored two goals and Jaucelyn Richter had three assists as Montana State Billings split a pair of contests with NAIA schools.

GNAC PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK: Tyler Schultz, Seattle Pacific (M, 5-11, 170, So., Scottsdale, AZ) scored four goals as the Falcons won two of three games, including a 1-0 win at nationally 17th ranked Grand Canyon and a 4-1 home win against Montana State Billings. Schultz, who netted the game-winner against Grand Canyon, has seven goals and an assist and is tied for sixth in the GNAC in scoring, averaging 1.00 points per contest. He scored both of SPU's goals in its 3-2 road loss at Saint Martin's and had one of their four goals against MSUB.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMANCES: Seattle Pacific's Drew Williams had four assists, including three in a 4-1 win over Montana State Billings. He is the first player in GNAC history to record three assists in a conference contest. On 27 previous occasions, including twice this season, players had had two assists in a league contest.

SAINTS NEED TWO WINS FOR GNAC TITLE: Saint Martin's needs two wins in its final three contests to earn its first-ever team title in the eight-year history of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference. That won't necessarily be an easy task, however, as all three games are on the road at Montana State Billings (Oct. 29), Northwest Nazarene (Oct. 31) and Western Washington (Nov. 5). SMU currently leads second-place Seattle Pacific by two points. The Falcons finish their conference slate with home games against Western Washington and Northwest Nazarene.

AROUND THE GNAC: Vlad Voin and Ruben Orozco each had a goal and assist as Saint Martin's completed a season series sweep of Seattle Pacific with a 3-2 victory. . Oscar Jimenez had a goal and two assists and Tyler Bjork had the game-winning goal in Western Washington's 4-3 overtime win at Northwest Nazarene. The win was the 99th career victory for Travis Connell, who now has a 99-95-11 record in 11 seasons. Connell's women's teams are 80-46-10 in seven seasons. . Sam Charles' GNAC record string of 15 consecutive games with a point came to an end Saturday in MSUB's 4-1 loss at Seattle Pacific. Charles' career totals currently stand at 132 points (118 as a since MSUB joined the GNAC).. He has 59 career goals (52 in the GNAC).

ALL-TOURNAMENT: Chico State (Aug. 27-31) – Ruben Orozco, SMU; James Schmid, SMU; Erik Orozco, SMU.

GNAC PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK: Offense - Corey Stollmeyer, Humboldt State (6-0, 190, Sr., Morro Bay, CA), playing his first game at running back, ran for 129 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Lumberjacks to a 34-3 win over Southern Oregon. Stollmeyer, who moved from his normal slot back position because of injuries to two HSU running backs, finished with 153 all-purpose yards and scored on runs of 14, 10 and three yards as the 'Jacks improved to 4-3. Stollmeyer leads the GNAC in all-purpose running with 764 yards, including 202 rushing, 316 receiving and 246 on kick returns. Defense – Jerome Williams, Central Washington (DB, 6-0, 205, Sr., Seattle, WA – Ballard), had a GNAC-record 100-yard interception return as the Wildcats overcame a 21-0 halftime deficit to beat Western Oregon 23-21 and remain unbeaten. The interception was the 13th of his career. Williams finished with 146 all-purpose yards including 10 on two punt returns and 36 on one kickoff return. He also had five tackles and broke up a pass. Special Teams – Garrett Rolsma, Central Washington (6-1, 200, Sr., University Place, WA – Curtis) made three field goals, including the game-winner from 44 yards with 32 seconds remaining. Rolsma also converted from 32 yards in the third quarter and from 22 midway through the fourth stanza.

OTHER NOTABLE PERFORMANCES: Dixie State kicker Mike Langston tied a GNAC record by converting on four field goals (24, 37, 40 and 36) in the Red Storm's 33-23 victory. Langston equaled the record set by NFL veteran Michael Koenen for Western Washington against Western Oregon in 2001. Langston scored 15 points in the contest, one short of Koenen's GNAC record for points by a kicker. . .Red Storm quarterback Judd Thompson completed 19 of 38 passes for 344 yards and two touchdowns, registering his league-best fourth 300-yard plus game of the season.

FROM THE RECORD BOOK: Rolsma has 14 field goals this season, just one off his own GNAC record he set last year in 12 games. He also now has 298 career points and needs two more to join running back Dan Murphy (312 between 1996 and 1999) and wide receiver Johnny Spevak (308) as the only players in CWU history to score 300 or more points. Rolsma has made 92 consecutive extra points dating back to the 2007 playoffs. . .Spevak failed to score a touchdown for the second game in a row after his streak of games with a TD ended at 10. He did, however, catch six passes for 104 yards, earning his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and increasing his career totals to 294 catches for 4,056 yards. . .Williams 100-yard return bettered the previous GNAC best of 97 set by CWU's Brandon Kennedy in 2005 against Western Oregon. Williams' return was actually 101 yards, but under NCAA rules, returns are measured only from the goal line.
