FOR STUDENTS INTERESTED IN LATIN AMERICA

The University of Arizona and the Center for Mesoamerican Research (CIRMA) invite you to participate in a study abroad program in Guatemala. Students will receive a University of Arizona transcript.

For spring semester 2012: Application deadline is October 31!

Program highlights include:

- * a variety of Latin American Studies, History, Anthropology, Political Science, Geography and Spanish classes, taught by professors, scholars, and practitioners from Central America. Students can also study a Mayan language.

- * seminar-style classes give an in-depth and on-the-ground view of social history and social movements, and peace and development issues.

- * engaging field trips throughout

Guatemala related to course material.

- * opportunities to travel on your own (Guatemala is incredibly beautiful, complex and fascinating!)

- * a home stay with a Guatemalan family.

- * study abroad students can also participate in internships

Application deadlines:

Spring 2012: October 31, 2011

Summer 2012: March 1 (check back for updates)

Fall 2012: April 15 (check back for updates)

Campaign 2012 Academic Seminars

The MSU Billings Honors Program has the opportunity to nominate students to attend:

The Democratic and Republican National Conventions:

Every summer during the Presidential elections, TWC offers a two-week seminar the week before and the week of each political party's national convention. There is one seminar for each convention or a special three-week seminar that includes both conventions.

Cost: $3995 ($1000 Non-refundable Deposit)

Deadline: December 31, 2011

If you are interested in this program, please contact Dr. David Craig.

The Honors Club is co-sponsoring a “Dance the Night Away” dance on Thursday, November 17th from 6pm to 11pm. The dance instructors and several of the students will be teaching/demonstrating swing dance steps 6pm to 7:30pm on the stages on the North side of the Ballroom. Volunteers are needed for the event:
