

UHP News

Friday, September 17th

12-2p.m. Beading Panel Discussion

2:00-2:30 Light Refreshments

2:30-4:30 Beading Workshop hosted by Rocky Mountain Tribal Leadership *Supplies provided.

Meet in the SUB Glacier Room

Saturday, September 18th, 9:30-Noon

Our first Service Saturday: Honors Focus—Billings Public Library

Have a light breakfast and some networking time, then carpool to the event. The first service Saturday will be informal, but don't forget to wear your Honors t-shirt . If you need an Honors t-shirt, please call (657-2348) or stop by the office in COE 297 and pick one up.

Mentor youth at the library! Teach in the Teen Tech Lab technology skills for computers and photography. Lead Children's Storytime, later in the winter and springtime. You can even volunteer for the Adventure in Music initiative in association with the Billings Symphony. Also, receive training and then try your hand at creating a virtual program.

Meet in the SUB atrium at 9:30 a.m.

Thursday, September 23rd, 10:30-noon

Storytelling workshop with artist in residence Preeti Vasudevan

Meet north of the LA Building at the fountain at 10:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome

To Keep In Mind:

We are organizing a day/hiking in Yellowstone National Park

Our Scholarship Writing Series will launch on the evening of Thursday November 4th

Our Graduate/Professional School/ Fellowship Writing Series will launch in October

Our Next Service Saturday is October 9th at Painted Cave State Park

UHP News

Thursday, September 23rd

10:30-noon, at the fountain north of the LA Building: Storytelling workshop for MSUB students with special artist in residence, Preeti Vasudevan, Artistic Director of Thresh Dance and Director of First Voices

Thursday, September 23rd

International Studies Study Abroad Fair—Glacier Room of the SUB

Come learn about the multitude of available study abroad opportunities—whether you want to study literature in England or business in China, there's a program for you

Thursday, September 23rd

Chinese Calendar, Symbolism and Festivals

MSUB's Chinese visiting scholar, Renyi Deng, will discuss the Mid-Autumn Festival related mythology, traditions and agricultural activities. She will introduce lunar calendar meanings and provide an overview of the lunar Zodiac. This will be in LI 148 from 6:00-7:00pm.

To Keep In Mind:

October 5, 10:30 a.m.

Montana Ghost Town - Kevin Kooistra-Manning,
Photography by Denes G. Istvanffy

Western Heritage Center Executive Director Kevin Kooistra-Manning will speak in Petro Theatre on October 5, 2021, at 10:30 am. "Montana Ghost Towns: Photography of Denes G. Istvanffy" will cover more of Istvanffy's background and personal history, as well as an exploration of the ghost towns themselves.

UHP News

Wednesday, September 29th

Social Activities meeting COE 297 (and webex) 1:30-2:00

Our Graduate/Professional School/ Fellowship Writing Series will launch in October

Tuesday, October 5th, 10:30 am—Petro Theater

Montana Ghost Town - Kevin Kooistra-Manning,
Photography by Denes G. Istvanffy

Saturday ,October 9th

Service Saturday at Painted Cave State Park

Saturday, October 16th & Sunday October 17th

West Yellowstone, the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem and the gateway community of Yellowstone, Old Faithful, then Lake Area and Fishing Bridger, through Hayden Valley to Canyon Village, to Norris, then Mammoth, then dinner in Gardiner

Thursday November 4th— evening

Our Scholarship Writing Series will launch