We are starting a new monthly lunch gathering ———

FIRST FRIDAY FANDANGO

We will meet on the first Friday of every month, here in the Honors suite, COE 297, from 12:30 until 2:00pm. Lunch will be provided. All Honors students are invited to attend. We will have an informal presentation by one of our Professors.

Come join us for some food, fun and fandango-ing.

Urban dictionary definition of fandango—pointless wandering, usually associated with (root) beer.

Keep your eyes peeled for the upcoming Library Lecture Series on Yellowstone Park

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Honors graduation dinner & party is set for Thursday May 4th at the Chancellor's home— send an email to any of the Honors Crew with your ideas and input

Jacket Giving Day will be Thursday, February 24th

We'll be sending you more updates as this approaches

APPLY TO NCHC for Research Awards

Portz Interdisciplinary Fellowship Awards

Application Deadline: March 15, 2022

Each year, Portz Interdisciplinary Fellowships are awarded to honors students from NCHC member institutions, to support creative and innovative research endeavors that cross boundaries. Individual students who wish to undertake cross-disciplinary research, or a team of two students from different disciplines who propose a single collaborative project, could have their research funded for up to 18 months!

Only one proposal from each member institution is accepted—don't miss this opportunity for financial support AND national recognition of your student research.

2021 Award Winners

Mikayla Harrison and Luke Little, Missouri Baptist University - $5,000

Noam Gal, Baruch College - $5,000

Elizabeth Peller, Creighton University - $5,000

Chryssabella Jones-Craig, Suffolk University - $1,000

Jesselyn Nadolny, University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire - $1,000

Christian Ciattei, Salisbury University - $1,000
