

5th Annual "STIRRING THE POT" Forum By and About Women

"Who Runs the World: Gender, Politics, and Potential"

Thursday, March 26, 2009

7:00-9:00pm

Lewis and Clark Room in the Student Union Building
Montana State University Billings

Inspired by the 2008 presidential campaign, this forum will explore such topics as the US political gender gap, gender parity in global politics, women and war in recent US history, Wangari Maathai's grassroots green movement in Africa, and the life and work of Jeanette Rankin.

"Stirring the Pot" forums showcase women's voices.

They are designed to expand understanding of the world we live in and how we live in our world.

COME HELP US "STIR THE POT!"

For more information contact:

Dr. Lisa Kemmerer, MSU Billings Philosophy Department: 657-2936

Rev. Kim Woeste, United Campus Ministry: 657-2165