

Remembering the '60s

An MSU Billings Library Lecture Series

Tuesday Evenings • 6:30 p.m.
Library Room 148

- September 22 Sex, Drugs, and Rock & Roll: The Legacy of the 1960s
Dr. Keith Edgerton, MSUB history department chair
- September 29 What a Long Strange Trip: The Grateful Dead from Woodstock to Altamont
Dr. Susan Balter-Reitz, MSUB director of elearning and professor of communication
- October 6 Turn On, Tune In, Drop Out: 1960s Drug Culture and Legislation
Dr. Michael Havens, MSUB psychology department chair
- October 13 Warhol's Stars: Fashion and Failure in the 1960s
Dr. Leanne Gilbertson, MSUB art history assistant professor and Northcutt-Steele Gallery director
- October 20 The Final Frontier: The Space Program of the 1960s
Dr. Stuart Snyder, MSUB physics professor; Dr. Loren Acton, research professor of physics in the Solar Physics Group at Montana State University; and Dr. John Jurist, adjunct professor of biophysics and aviation at Rocky Mountain College
- October 27 Jazz in the 1960s (in Petro Theatre)
Dr. Mark Fenderson, Dr. Gary Behm, and John Roberts of the MSUB music department, joined by Parker Brown, Brad Edwards, and Eric Olson

FREE and open to the public

MONTANA
STATE UNIVERSITY
BILLINGS
LIBRARY