

A Path Appears

Human Trafficking and Local Activism

Monday, October 16: Learn

A Path Appears: Film Viewing—Sex Trafficking in the USA

Art House Cinema & Pub (109 North 30th Street)

Doors open at 6pm, Showtime, 6:30pm

The Department of Justice estimates that there are 300,000 children at risk of being trafficked into sexual slavery in the U.S. In the first episode of A Path Appears, we meet the survivors behind these shocking numbers, and illuminate the widespread existence of this violent crime taking place across America.

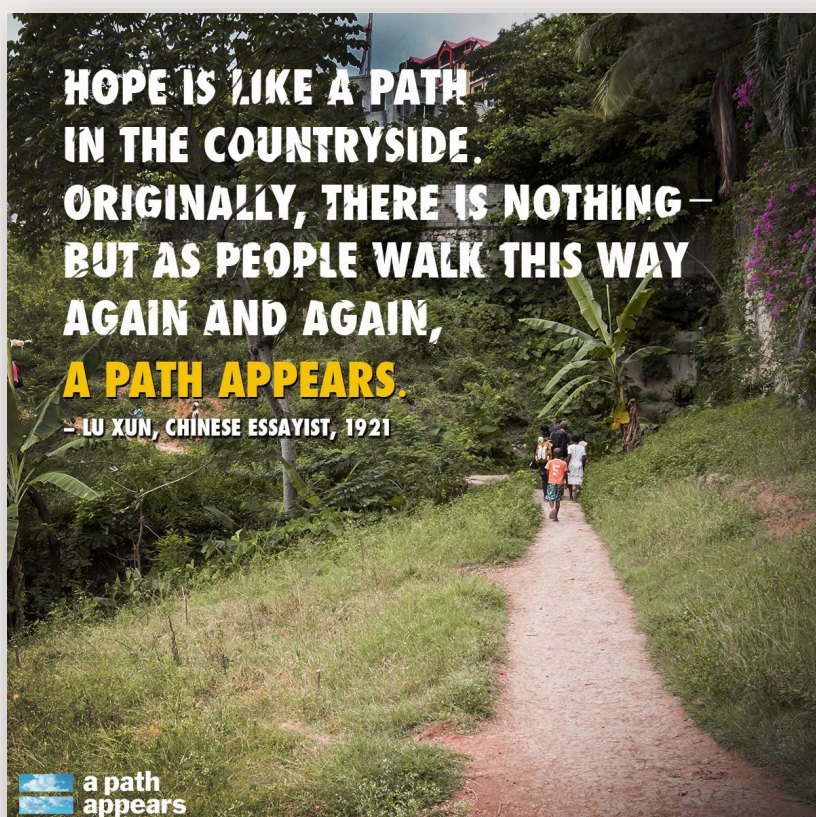

Monday, October 23: Take Action

Human Trafficking and Local Activism: A Discussion

Montana State University Billings

Women's and Gender Studies Center

Liberal Arts Building, Room 201, 6pm

wgsc@msubillings.edu

406.657.2873

GlobalVillageBillings.org

406.259.3024

All events are free and open to the public.

